

I am writing to encourage you to force Pappas Media in California to uphold their obligation to offer equal airtime to opposing political parties. They are committing the bulk of their free "air-time" to the Republicans, excluding other parties from getting an equal opportunity. It is the FCC's job to enforce the policies against this and I am encouraging you to do so. Thank you.